Publisher of Nursing Management journal

Wolters Kluwer Health/Lippincott Williams & Wilkins announces its Nursing Management Congress2008. This educational meeting and exposition is for nurses in management and leadership positions across the continuum of health care.

Subject Matter

Poster submissions should contain subject matter of interest to nurses in management and leadership roles—including personal and professional development, stress/time/project management, financial/budgetary control, ethical/legal issues, team management, human resource development, patient care, and environmental/equipment management.

Poster Proposal Format Requirements

Submit a proposal by e-mail to jessica.clark@wolterskluwer.com

Proposals must include the following:

- Abstract Title
- Purpose Statement
- 2-3 behavioral objectives (i.e., what will the attendee learn after viewing your abstract? Use words that begin with “describe,” “identify,” “define,” “list,” etc.)
- Abstract (250 word-limit includes abstract only)--statement of the problem, rationale, methodology, results, and conclusion. When presenting a product, you must use the generic name.
- Recent references/supporting research (dated from 2001 to 2008)
- Bio/Disclosure Form (included in this document)
- Note: By submitting your abstract, you authorize Wolters Kluwer Health/Lippincott Williams & Wilkins to use your abstract in print and electronic media.

Poster Proposal Guidelines

CE credit will be awarded for attending poster sessions; therefore, the following rules apply:

- In accordance with the ANCC Standards for Disclosure and Commercial Support, all posters for which continuing education will be offered must be independent, balanced, and all conflicts of interest must be resolved.
- Each author named on a poster must submit the bio profile/financial disclosure form attached.
- Each proposal is peer-reviewed by the Nursing Management Congress Poster Review Committee.
- Poster presenters who are selected for presentation must register for the Conference at the “Super Early” rate and make their own travel and hotel arrangements. This special rate applies regardless of when you register!
- You’ll be provided with an 8-ft horizontal x 4-ft vertical poster board for each poster. You must bring your own pushpins or Velcro for mounting. No additional materials will be provided.
- Poster Presenters who are selected will be required to send a PDF of their final display material for CE review, by a specific deadline (separate instructions will be sent in the acceptance letter.) Please do not send your PDF to the submission address!
- Posters will be displayed in a separate area in the exhibit hall to comply with new CE rules and regulations and will be available for viewing at unopposed session times throughout the conference.

ANCC Rules/Regulations Defined:

- Poster presenters and providers must comply with the following statements from the ANCC Standards for Disclosure and Commercial Support. Candidates may go to www.ana.org to access the full document.
- 1.1 ANCC defines an entity that has a “commercial interest” as any proprietary entity producing health care goods or services, with the exception of non-profit or government organizations.
- 1.2 A CNE provider must ensure that the following decisions were made free from control of a commercial interest.
 - (a) identification of CNE needs
 - (b) determination of educational objectives
 - (c) selection and presentation of content
 - (d) selection of all persons and organizations that will be in a position to control the content of the CNE
 - (e) selection of educational methods, and
 - (f) evaluation of the activity
- 2.1 An individual must disclose any financial relationships with an entity with a commercial interest (see STANDARD 1).
- 2.3 An individual who refuses to disclose relevant financial relationships will be disqualified from being a planning committee member, a teacher, or an author of CNE and cannot have control of, or responsibility for, the development, management, presentation, or evaluation of the CNE activity.
- 2.4 The provider must have implemented a mechanism to identify and resolve all conflicts of interest prior to the education activity being delivered to learners.
- 5.1 The content or format of a CNE activity or its related materials must promote improvements or quality in health care and not a specific proprietary business interest of an entity with a commercial interest.
- 5.2 Presentations must give a balanced view of therapeutic options. Use of generic names will contribute to this impartiality. If the CNE educational material or content includes trade names, when available trade names from several companies should be used, not just trade names from a single company.

The purpose of this form is (1) to identify faculty's relationships and financial interests and (2) to identify educational content that includes off-label uses of products.

1. Continuing education programs should be objective, and where there may be legitimate differences, balanced. As the provider of continuing education contact hours, Wolters Kluwer Health/Lippincott Williams & Wilkins is responsible for assuring that the continuing education activity is objective, balanced and free of conflicts of interest. A conflict of interest may exist when a significant financial interest or relationship exists with the manufacturer(s) of any commercial product(s) and/or provider(s) of commercial services discussed in an educational presentation and with any commercial supporters of the activity.
2. Wolters Kluwer Health/Lippincott Williams & Wilkins requires presenters to disclose plans to include educational content that contains off-label uses of pharmaceuticals, products, and devices. For example, off-label uses of pharmaceuticals are indications or administration routes that are not approved by the Food and Drug Administration (FDA).

The information that is disclosed on this form will be documented within the course syllabus so that an informed audience may formulate their own opinions as to any bias in the information presented.
